APPLICANT ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

- The $200 fee purchases empty indoor exhibit space only. The applicant is responsible for all displays, tables, chairs, coverings, cords, equipment, staffing, permits, licenses, taxes, and supplies needed for the exhibit.
- Electrical service costs $40 per exhibitor, is limited, and is not reserved until approved in writing. The applicant must accurately disclose electrical loads and use safe, code-compliant cords and equipment.
- The application is a request, not a guarantee of acceptance, placement, exclusivity, electrical service, attendance, sales, or results. Space assignments are made by the event committee.
- The applicant will keep the exhibit staffed and presentable during public event hours, follow setup and breakdown instructions, and will not dismantle early without approval.
- The applicant accepts responsibility for its people, property, products, demonstrations, sales, taxes, permits, and conduct, and agrees to follow Fairgrounds, fire, health, safety, and event requirements.
- Final acceptance, payment deadlines, cancellation terms, insurance requirements, and operating rules will be stated in the written acceptance notice and event rules.
